Missoula County

Located in western Montana, Missoula County is Montana's second most populous with 96,303 residents, according to the 2001 estimates produced by the U.S. Census Bureau.

According to the Montana Almanac, by authors Andrea Merrill and Judy Jacobson, the county was established in 1865 and was once part of Washington Territory.

Missoula, the county seat, is the state's second largest city with a population of 57,053, according to the 2000 Census. Nicknamed the "Garden City," Missoula often has a milder climate than other Montana cities. Missoula is home to the University of Montana and the 2001 NCAA Division I-AA Championship Grizzly football team. According to a University of Montana Kaimin article, Washington-Grizzly Stadium ranks as the seventh highest population center in Montana during game time when filled to capacity with 19,500 fans. The city is also a major medical and retail hub in western Montana.

According to the U.S. Bureau of the Census, median income for Missoula County households in 1999 was $34,454. The county is 2,618.4 square miles in area; 2,598.2 square miles in land area and 20.17 in inland water area.

County residents experience the four distinct seasons. According to the Western Regional Climate Center, the average daily low in Missoula in January between 1971 and 2000 was 16.2 degrees above zero. The average daily high in July was 83.6 degrees above. The annual precipitation during the same period was 13.82 inches and the growing season was from May 26 to Sept. 17 (last and first frost).

PLEASE NOTE: Because of time and budget constraints, we are only able to update our county fliers periodically. Individual tables are updated on a more frequent basis. You can call us if you'd like the most current information for a particular county. The Annual Averages for County Employment by Industry are updated annually, usually in June. The Top Employers are updated annually. Per Capita Income is usually released late spring. Population data for Montana is released in late December and county data in March. The Annual Average Labor Force information is benchmarked annually and numbers available before March. The other tables contain Census information and will be updated every 10 years. You can also look for more current information on our website listed on the front of this publication.

1,000 copies of this flier were printed at an estimated cost of $100.60.
